God Calls Us to Confess Our Sins

Gracious and Merciful Father, you call us to a living and fruitful faith. Yet, so often, we give you half-hearted obedience and choose rather to please ourselves. You tell us that we are the salt of the earth and the light of the world, yet we hold back good works for others to see. Fan into flame the desire to know and love you more. Help us to show our faith by serving others, meeting their needs, and bringing the lost the hope of the gospel. Increase our faith to trust and obey you more and to glorify your Son in all that we say and do. Now hear our and accept our personal and private confessions...

Old Testament Reading

Leviticus 25:18-22

“Now if you faithfully obey the voice of the LORD your God and are careful to follow all His commandments I am giving you today, the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations of the earth. And all these blessings will come upon you and overtake you, if you will obey the voice of the LORD your God:

You will be blessed in the city and blessed in the country. The fruit of your womb will be blessed, as well as the produce of your land and the offspring of your livestock—the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks. Your basket and kneading bowl will be blessed. You will be blessed when you come in and blessed when you go out.
